

Reducing modern slavery in Asia

Opportunity

An estimated 40 million people are trapped in modern slavery, including almost 25 million in forced labour. Two-thirds of these are in the Asia-Pacific region

Actions

Macquarie shaped a long-term regional project, including multi-year funding for projects that build ethical recruitment practices, educate vulnerable workers about their rights and promote policy change

Outcomes

Multiple

organisations supported

JUSTICE HONG CENTRE KONG
PROTECTING FORCED MIGRANTS' RIGHTS

HAGAR
The whole journey

VF VISAYAN FORUM
INNOVATING SOLUTIONS TO END MODERN SLAVERY

2,000

workers placed through Fair Employment Agency

Fair Hiring Pledge

signed by 20 companies,
including Macquarie

$A1.2 million

contributed by Macquarie staff and the Foundation since 2015